HUSTEP- FULL YEAR

Period: October 1 ~ August 31 (11 months)
Participants in this program take a wide variety of courses offered in English in the fields of Culture and Society, Environment, Science and Technology. In addition, participants can pursue independent study research under the guidance of a faculty member. Students also have the chance to study the Japanese language. There will also be an opportunity to take part in numerous traditional and contemporary Japanese cultural activities.

JLCSP - FULL YEAR

Period: October 1 ~ September 30 (12 months)
Participants can improve their Japanese language proficiency to enable them to interact with Japanese speakers and conduct research in Japanese. They can acquire basic knowledge and methodologies for Japanese studies – particularly relating to Japanese general and applied linguistics. Students can gain a deeper understanding both of Japanese language and culture. In the second semester (April – September,) students can study a research topic in their field of specialty and complete a final report under the guidance of a supervisor.

SAS  Special Audit Student

Six-month or one-year programs in which students are assigned to particular faculties and undertake studies centered around their specialist area in the same way as regular students. Instruction is in principle in Japanese, so a high level of language proficiency is required equivalent to JLPT level N2 or higher (preferably native level.) Applicants can be either at undergraduate or graduate level.

SRS  Special Research Student

Six-month or one-year programs in which students are assigned to particular graduate schools and undertake studies centered around their specialist area in the same way as regular students. Special Research Students receive supervision only and must be studying at graduate level.

HUSTEP-HALF YEAR

Period: October 1 ~ March 31 OR April 1 ~ September 31 (6 months)
Hokkaido University is launching a half-year HUSTEP Program from October 2014! This shortened version is designed for students who want a shorter study abroad experience but who still want to enjoy the HUSTEP experience and all this great program offers. Details will be published and sent out in December 2013.
